Dear Sir,—In your paper of the 8th instant, where you were pleased to draw attention to the business of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, the figures got into wrong positions in stating the number of policies at 4,179, the correct numerals were there, but they should have been placed so as to read 4,791, that being the number of policies issued by the Company previous to May 1st. At this date (May 14) the number issued is 5,025, insuring $14,194,500.

Among matters discussed at the Cabinet meeting to-day the election in Mississippi and Texas is said to have of Northern men having already been the only one of importance discussed. The interest centered in the inet met, a delegation of Mississippians had called upon the President to consult as to the time for holding the election in that State. After a full exchange of views, the President came to the conclusion that the best time would be about the 1st of September. Phis suited the Mississippians. They had explained to the President that this was the best time, when the labering interests of the State for from any part of the country, and needed least attention, and when the that agency has already ordered 50,000 negroes could best be spared from the cultivation of the cotton crop. They left the President with the understanding that the 1st of September would be designated as the time when the election shold take place.

Our readers need not be told that this is a work of great interest and value. It is the standard history of military operations at the South such is a book which every reading man should possess; but its interest and value are both greatly increased by Gen. Robert E. Lee's thorough revision and correction, and by the valusble biography of his father which he has written and added to it. We are sure that this announcement, alone, is sufficient to give the book a very great sale, but when we add that Gen. Les is personally interested in its publication, such a sale is made certain. As we learn that the book is to be
